Parking Regulations

About Pitt’s Parking Regulations and Their Enforcement

The regulations that govern parking at the University of Pittsburgh are summarized in this brochure and are contained in their entirety in the University’s parking ordinance. The purpose of the ordinance are to provide orderly parking for University faculty, staff, and students; to protect pedestrians; and to ensure access to all buildings and parking areas for firefighting and other emergency equipment and personnel.

Pitt’s parking regulations are in effect 24 hours a day, seven days a week, including holidays, except as specifically noted. These regulations have been formulated in cooperation with the University’s Department of University Marketing Communications. E-mail: parkappeals@bc.pitt.edu

Parking Opportunities

You can apply for a parking permit by simply calling, writing, or e-mailing the Parking Services Office. To obtain a permit for the lot of your choice, you will probably need to sign up for a waiting list (which you can view at the office or online at www.pts.pitt.edu). By filling out a parking registration form. When a space becomes available, the Parking Services Office will notify you by mail. Be sure to keep your information current, as we update the list regularly. Changes such as departmental relocations, lot closings, disabled parking needs, etc., do occur that may affect your position on the list. Hourly and daily parking rates are available in the Allequippa Street (OC), O’Hara (OH), Panther Hollow (PH), Sennott Square (SK), and Soldiers and Sailors (SS) facilities. Metered parking also is available (see map for locations).

How it Works

Once assigned, your permit is your passport to campus lots reserved for the exclusive use of Pitt students, faculty, and staff. To ensure that parking enforcement staff know you are permitted to park in your facility, be sure to display the appropriate permit.

Faculty and Staff Parking at Pitt

While you’re at the University of Pittsburgh, we can help you navigate the campus parking facilities. This guide serves as your road map for finding the parking plan that best works for you.

Located at 204 Brackenridge Hall, the Parking Services Office is the place for locating parking facilities, choosing a permit plan that matches your campus lifestyle, and understanding the regulations that govern vehicles on University property. This guide will help you find answers to most of your parking-related questions and offer tips that will make it easier for you to park your vehicle on campus. A wealth of other information is also available on our Web site at www.pts.pitt.edu. Parking Services has a variety of parking plans for faculty, staff, and visitors. These parking plans match your campus lifestyle, and understanding the regulations that govern vehicles on University property. This guide will help you find answers to most of your parking-related questions and offer tips that will make it easier for you to park your vehicle on campus. For more information, contact the Parking Services Office at 412-624-4026.

Helpful Hint

Are you dropping something off at a campus building but don’t have a permit for the nearest lot? Leave your flashers on, and you can park for up to 15 minutes in a lot other than your own, with your permit displayed.

As a permit holder, you can use these lots, E, F, FB, GC, GD, GE, GH, PN, PA, PG, PH, SG, SL, UI, UV, V after 4 p.m. weeknights and all day Saturday and Sunday. Wesley W. Posvar Hall garage and Purn Hall are available after 5 p.m.

There are rare times in which you may not find a parking space on your assigned list. If that occurs, park in the Soldiers and Sailors (SS), O’Hara (OH), or Allequippa Street (OC) garages, call the Parking Services Office, and we will temporarily validate your permit. If you can’t access your regular lot due to bad weather, such as snow, you can park in either the SO or OH garages.

Permits of any type are never valid at any meter.

Faculty and staff pay for their permits through payroll deduction. Be sure to verify that your parking fees are properly deducted from your paycheck and report any errors to the Parking Services Office.

Failure to do so will not excuse you from paying back charges. If you use your Pitt ID as an access card for your garage, please remember to stop by the Parking Services Office when you get a new ID so that we may update your records.

Emeritus faculty and commuter students buy their permits on a term basis, resident students must pay for the academic year, and vendors and departments must pay for the fiscal year. The Parking Services Office accepts cash, checks, Visa, MasterCard, Discover, and Panther Funds.

Special permits are available for disabled drivers, carpools, carpools, vendors, department visitors, conference attendees, contractors, and members of the Board of Trustees. For information on obtaining a special permit, call 412-624-4026.

Permits paid by University account number require senior administrator approval. Remember that permits are nontransferable, and your permit and keycard remain University property.
Paying fines and appeals

In order to ensure that our faculty and staff have spaces available when they need them, the Parking Services Office must enforce penalties against those who violate the rules. If you receive a parking fine, you must pay it within 10 days from the date of issue. Repeat offenders may be booted and/or towed.

If you choose to appeal, you may make your case via e-mail, fax, or telephone within 10 calendar days of the issue date. If you fail to meet the 10-day deadline, the appeals officer will not consider your request.

Appeals should include:

- Name
- Permanent address
- University status (such as student, staff, faculty, etc.)
- Current vehicle and license plate number
- Permanent telephone number
- Citation number
- Time and date of violation
- Reason for appeal
- Payment

Fax all appeals to 412-624-8999, or e-mail them to parkappeals@bc.pitt.edu. You also can submit the appeal online at www.pts.pitt.edu/parking.
