Paying Fines and Appeals

In order to ensure that our faculty and staff have spaces available when they need them, the Parking Services Office must enforce penalties against those who violate the rules. If you receive a parking fine, you must pay it within 10 days of the date of issue.

If you choose to appeal, you may make your case via e-mail, fax, or telephone within 10 business days of the date of issue. If you fail to meet the 10-day deadline, the appeals officer will not consider your request.

Appeals should include:

- Name
- Student ID number, Employee PR number, or Social Security number
- University status (such as student, staff, faculty, etc.); Permanent address;
- Daytime telephone number;
- Citation number;
- Vehicle state and plate number;
- Permit number;
- Reason for appeal.

Refunds are available only if you appeal your ticket within 10 days of receiving it and the appeals officer agrees with your appeal.

Helpful Hint

Be sure to settle any violations! If you have outstanding obligations, the Parking Services Office will not issue you a permit. Repeat offenders will lose their existing permits without appeal.

If you are leaving the University or being on an approved extended leave, and don’t want to con- tinue paying for your permit, bring it with you to the Parking Services Office by the last working day of the month. When you return from your leave, we will assign a parking space to you in the same lot if you occupied before you left.
